

TO ENFORCE THE LAW.

South Carolina's Governor Sends Troops to Darlington.

Partial Law is Declared—Mutinous Militiamen Are Denounced as Cowards—A Censorship Over Telegrams is Established.

THE SITUATION GRAVE.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 3.—Gov. Tillman has declared Darlington and Florence counties in a state of insurrection. He has also ordered the railroad authorities not to transport any bodies of men unless authorized by him. The railroads thus far refused compliance. The governor has ordered the telegraph companies not to transmit any news of a warlike tendency. This order has likewise been refused.

The city and state dispensaries were closed Saturday by order of the governor, and their contents are now being hauled to the penitentiary for safe keeping.

Tillman's Proclamation.

The governor's proclamation declaring Darlington and Florence counties in insurrection is as follows:

"Whereas, Certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence and are in open rebellion against the authorities of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties now, therefore, I, B. R. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons as assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command all such assemblies of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours."

Judge Watts, of the state courts, on request of Gov. Tillman has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company's manager, Gray, restraining him from accepting messages for transmission on the Darlington trouble unless sent by state authorities. Manager Gray has referred the matter to the New York authorities, which will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor, it is declared, will take possession of the office if the order of Judge Watts is not complied with.

Early Sunday morning Gov. Tillman established a telegraph censorship, placing several militiamen—the most intelligent that could be selected—in charge of both offices to supervise all messages offered. These gentlemen have simply carried out their instructions, and have refused only a few telegrams that were calculated to arouse bad feeling.

Early in the day the governor summoned the governor's guards to the executive mansion. Drawing them up in line he addressed them, saying that he was informed that their disbandment was not their fault, but that they had been overawed by a mob at their doors. He told them that they stood before the people of the state as disgraced, and that he now wished to give them the opportunity to wipe the stain from their brow and to restore them to honor. He asked for some indications as to whether they would obey his orders, in which event their arms would be given back to them. As he made this assertion five of the men threw down their bayonets and were quickly followed by several others. Their captain begged them to desist and wait until the governor had finished. Gov. Tillman, however, told them that their action was satisfactory, for he only wished to know exactly what their position was. He then said to those who remained that they could leave, but if they determined to obey orders to report to the state penitentiary. The remnant of the company marched to their arms and in five minutes thereafter they had disbanded.

At 5 o'clock marching orders were given to the troops stationed at the penitentiary. Gov. Tillman addressed them. Referring to the mutinous militia companies at Columbia, Florence, Sumpter and Charleston, Gov. Tillman denounced them as cowards. He concluded:

"You are going on a delicate and dangerous mission. You must remember that the Darlington people are our fellow-citizens, but they are in insurrection and it is necessary for you to go there to uphold the law. You go as an arm of the law and you must treat the Darlington people with consideration, but if you are ordered to shoot you must do it or anarchy will prevail in the state. I hope to restore you to your homes as early as possible, but the law must be upheld or the state government will be the laughing stock of the world."

The troops left for Darlington shortly afterward. There were twelve companies in all, comprising a total of 293 men. A number of boxes of cartridges were placed upon the train. What is to be done with them is a mystery. Gen. Reichberg, who is commander, would not say anything about his orders. The troops went away on a special train over the Atlantic Coast Line road.

FRENCH population returns for 1892 show for the three years an excess of deaths over births, the former amounting to 875,000 and the latter to 855,000. With the exception of 1890 the mortality is higher than in any year since 1880. Marriages, however, are more plentiful than in the previous 17 years. The report predicts that the effects of the war of 1870-71 will now cease to operate. During the war there were 600,000 abnormal deaths and 130,000 fewer births than might otherwise have been expected, but in 1879 there was an increase of 20,000.

THE CROP BULLETIN SAYS IT WAS DISASTROUS TO FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The monthly crop bulletin says that within six days over a large portion of the country east of the Rocky mountains both the highest and lowest temperatures yet observed during March were reported. The freezing weather ruined early fruits and vegetables in the southern states. In Missouri wheat and clover were injured. Illinois and Indiana reports are conflicting, fruits being seriously damaged if not killed. In West Virginia some wheat and oats frozen. In Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Washington, California and Idaho there was no damage, while in Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska fruit is badly injured.

The South Carolina Militiamen Are Re-signing—The Situation.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 4.—The Newberry rifles, which have been guarding the state house and acting as censors of all dispatches at the telegraph offices, notified Gov. Tillman on Monday that they had resigned and that their arms were at his disposal. They stated in their letters that they "came here under the belief that they were needed for the purpose of protecting life and property and not for the purpose of exercising a scrutiny over the private affairs of the citizens of South Carolina, a duty not only distasteful, but in the judgment of the company unnecessary and calculated to irritate the people all the more under the present state of affairs, and that they did not care to be subjected to such orders in the future. Gov. Tillman accordingly notified the company to turn over their arms to the state and has placed other soldiers in charge of the office. Gov. Tillman severely denounces the Newberry rifles in a letter to their captain, saying that their action is mutiny pure and simple. He refuses to accept the resignations of the company but dismisses them from the service of the state as unworthy to wear its uniform, expressing at the same time the hope that he "may never be bothered with any more such band-box and holiday soldiers."

The shop was set on fire and four men were burned to death. Three others were taken out badly injured. The dead are as follows: Harry Bowyer, Jesse Harrell, Ora Ball, Charles Hoover.

An Aged Woman Murdered at Pomeroy, O.—Crime a Mystery.

POMEROY, O., April 3.—Saturday night Elizabeth, the divorced wife of Dr. Richard Slaughter, was found dead on the next door neighbor's porch with three bullet holes in her head. She lived alone and was 70 years of age. Neighbor Clayton Stahl and wife on returning from an entertainment fell over the dead body at their door.

She is supposed to have run to the neighbors when attacked and was murdered while trying to get in their door. The body shows marks of kicks. The front door of the dead woman's house was found open and the lamp burning. Nothing was disturbed. The object of the murder is a mystery. She was peaceable and well liked. There is no clue to the murderer. A thirty-two caliber Smith & Wesson shell was found in the yard.

GERMAN WOMEN.

They Hold an Important Conference in Berlin.

BERLIN, April 3.—The women's movement in Germany is making great progress. The congress called by the women delegates to the world's fair at Chicago met here last week. It is the intention of the women to form a union and humane society in Germany in order that the work of the societies may be conducted upon a broader plan. A thorough exchange of views between the different societies is proposed, and it seems likely that the movement will have a decided beneficial effect upon the female mind in Germany. In order to avoid politics, the women confined their discussions to questions interesting to women, but the delegates decided to exclude social democrats from their meetings.

BISMARCK'S BIRTHDAY.

The Veteran Statesman at Germany Celebrates His 79th Anniversary.

At an early hour the band of the Lauenburg rifles and the Altona Choral society proceeded to Prince Bismarck's residence at Friedrichsruhe and serenaded him. Throughout the day constant streams of telegrams, letters, gifts and presents of flowers have flowed into Friedrichsruhe. Count von Moltke, the emperor's aid-de-camp, arrived at Friedrichsruhe bearing to the ex-chancellor an autographic letter from the emperor congratulating him upon the occasion. The count also took as a gift from the emperor a splendid cuirass with epaulets, which Prince Bismarck immediately donned.

Intestinal Troubles of Hernandez Baffle the Skill of the Physicians.

LIMA, April 3.—President Hernandez died Saturday morning from intestinal trouble which he and his physicians have been fighting for some time by every means in their power. His body was hardly cold before alarming rumors became public concerning the intentions of the Cacerists to seize the reins of government. All the shops and business houses have been closed, and Vice President Solan and Signor Valcarcel, the presidential candidate, have gone into hiding as a coup d'etat is expected from Cacerists at any moment.

Customs Sheds Burned.

MONTEREY, April 3.—Fire at Tampico destroyed the government custom house sheds and about $150,000 worth of property, including the wharf, which was valued at $45,000. #### THE GOVERNOR'S CHOICE.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 4.—Patrick Walsh, editor of the Augusta Chronicle, has been appointed by Gov. Northern to fill the vacancy in the United States senate caused by the death of Senator Colquitt.

(Patrick Walsh is the owner and editor of the Augusta Chronicle, the leading daily newspaper of Augusta. He is a native of Ireland and about 55 years old. He has never before held a political office of importance, but for many years has been active and prominent in politics and public affairs in Georgia. He was for several years the Georgia member of the democratic national committee. He came to America when a boy and learned the printer's trade in Charleston, S. C. He worked at the case on various newspapers there for a number of years. Walsh was the southern manager of the old New York Associated Press until that organization passed out of existence.)

ARMS LAID DOWN.

The South Carolina Militiamen Are Resigning—The Situation.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 4.—The Newberry rifles, which have been guarding the state house and acting as censors of all dispatches at the telegraph offices, notified Gov. Gov. Tillman accordingly notified the company to turn over their arms to the state and has placed other soldiers in charge of the office. Gov. He refuses to accept the resignations of the company but dismisses them from the service of the state as unworthy to wear its uniform, expressing at the same time the hope that he "may never be bothered with any more such band-box and holiday soldiers."

Throughout the day the governor has had offers of services from several outside military companies, all of which he has declined. The telegraph censorship has not been discontinued, but the governor himself passes upon all telegrams, rejecting some and changing others.

BROWN-SEQUARD DEAD.

Demise of the Eminent Physician at Paris.

PARIS, April 4.—Prof. Brown-Sequard, the eminent physician and physiologist, the supposed inventor of the elixir of life, died here at 9 a. m.

(Prof. Brown-Sequard was born in the island of Mauritius in 1818. His father was an American. His life was devoted almost exclusively to an extended series of experimental investigations on important physiological topics, such as the conditions and functions of the blood, the brain and the muscular and nervous system. He had visited the United States many times, delivering lectures and instructing private classes of physicians in his discoveries.)

The present general theory of Brown-Sequard best by reason of his assertion, made a few years ago, that he had discovered a means of prolonging human life for beyond the usual term. His method consisted in injecting into the blood a lymph made by macerating certain glands from the male sheep and extracting thence a substance of high vitalizing power. This material Brown-Sequard claimed had the effect of rejuvenating the human system to a great degree, and possessed the power of averting almost definitely the processes by which the system is carried to decay and death.

Brown-Sequard made many experiments with his lymph before giving publicly to his discovery. In every instance he claimed to have found most encouraging results. Patients who had been given over to death by some of the ablest physicians of the age were restored to health and strength by this wonderful preparation which came to be known as Brown-Sequard's "elixir of life."

For a year or two the matter was the wonder and the comment of the scientific world. Fierce controversies were waged over the subject. Some physicians denounced Brown-Sequard as a charlatan, while others, equally able, praised him as a benefactor of the human race. The possibility of prolonging human life indefinitely was debated long and vigorously, but at last the excitement died away. It was discovered that while the lymph would be beneficial in some cases it was injurious in others, and its value as a means of lengthening human life was conceded to be little.

SPRING ELECTIONS.

Result of the Vote for Municipal Officers in Several States.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—The municipal campaign which ended with the election of Monday was one of the hottest political fights known in the history of the Queen City. The result is a victory for the republicans. The returns show the election of Hon. John A. Caldwell by a plurality of 6,700. He will therefore resign his seat in congress and a special election will be in order in the Second district of Ohio. All the other names on the republican ticket were renominations and consequently re-elections, and by pluralities ranging up to 13,000.

The vote on mayor is: Caldwell (rep.), 26,673; Miller (dem.), 11,855; Horstman (citizen), 19,912; people's, 255; prohibition, 79. On the rest of the ticket the vote averaged: Republicans, 28,000; democrats, 14,000; citizens, 15,000. The total vote is about 14,000 below the registration.

The republicans carried everything at Lima, Hamilton, Wapakoneta and other places for the first time. Wapakoneta elects a republican mayor and two republican councilmen. The republicans never before had a councilman at Wapakoneta.

Hamilton, which had a normal democratic majority of 1,400, elects Henry Lots (rep.) city commissioner by 1,100 majority. All minor ward offices were carried by the republicans except those of the First ward. Republican success is reported at Wooster, Piqua, Denison, Urichville, London, Waverly, Washington Court House and Fostoria, Toledo, Newark and many other points. The vote at nearly all places is heavy.

CLEVELAND, O., April 4.—Official returns from about one-half of the city show that the republicans have won by pluralities ranging from 3,000 to 5,000. In the presidential election of 1892 the city went democratic by 4,000 and last spring the democratic candidate for mayor had nearly 1,500 plurality. The vote was very light Monday, the election being only for school director and members of the school council and city council.

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—The republicans have swept everything in Columbus, electing the police judge and the entire ticket. Seventy out of seventy-five precincts show that the majority of Bigger for judge will be about 3,000. The city was carried for the democratic mayor last spring by 1,000. The majorities on the balance of the ticket will range from 2,000 to 3,500. The republicans also elect seventeen of the twenty-two councilmen and about the same majority on the school board.

DETROIT, Mich., April 4.—The returns from the municipal elections held in this state are mostly in favor of the republicans. There seems to have been a general change of political sentiment, especially in cities and towns which have heretofore been counted as safely democratic. In Grand Rapids the entire democratic ticket was defeated. Ten out of twelve aldermen elected are republicans. In Saginaw the democrats elected mayor by 46 plurality. Republicans elect the other officers. In Bay City democrats elect recorder and only two of twelve aldermen. Republicans made clean sweeps in St. Joseph, Benton Harbor, Kalamazoo, Adrian, Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Cadillac, Big Rapids, Jackson. Grand Haven republicans get the city offices except marshal. At Muskegon the republicans made a clean sweep. In the smaller towns and townships the returns thus far received also show republican gains.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., April 4.—The largest vote ever polled was cast here Monday. The republicans have elected the entire city ticket with the exception of one alderman and one constable in doubt. The vote on county seat removal is 1,246 in this city. With St. Joseph's vote the twin cities have cast 3,200 for removal. Reports from outlying districts come in slowly, but it is generally conceded that the removal proposition has carried.

DURHAM, Ia., April 4.—The entire democratic city ticket was elected Monday by 600 majority. They also elected four democratic aldermen and one independent republican, Crawford, in the Fourth ward, who ran against O'Neil, citizens' candidate.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 4.—The republicans here elected the whole city ticket by majorities from 1,000 to 1,400. They also elected eight of the nine aldermen.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 4.—In none of the Minnesota town elections held Monday were political issues at stake. Only a few reports are at hand. In only a few towns was the liquor question voted upon. Lanesboro and Litchfield are among the towns that decided upon no license. Winnebago City voted for license. St. Cloud elected a republican mayor. The democrats have a majority in the council.

ABILENE, Kan., April 4.—At Enterprise, in this county, the women had an entire city ticket, with Mrs. C. Kohler for mayor. They conducted an active campaign, and polled nearly all the women votes. Their ticket was, however, defeated by 100 votes. Politics cut no figure in this unique contest. It was a fight by the women against saloons and for a purer municipal government.

Important Nominations.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate: Thomas E. Benedict, of New York, to be public printer; James D. Yeomans, of Iowa, to be interstate commerce commissioner.

Chopped His Head Off.

LEBANON, Ky., April 4.—Lewis J. Ratliff was killed at Howardstown Sunday by a man named Mahoney. Ratliff went to Mahoney's distillery early and quarreled with the owner, who struck him a fearful blow in the head with a hatchet. The infuriated man then dragged Ratliff's lifeless form a short distance and placing his neck across a log, completely severed the head from the body.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., April 4.—Mrs. Emily Bennett was placed on trial here for the murder of Miss Anna Weiss.

RIOT AND BLOODSHED.

Fatal Conflicts Between Political Factions at Kansas City, Mo.

One Man Instantly Killed, Three Mortally Wounded and Two Others Seriously Hurt—Three Men Shot While Working at the Poles in Chicago.

KANSAS CITY, April 4.—The campaign preceding yesterday's election was one of the most bitter and hard fought in the history of the city. The officers elected are mayor, treasurer, auditor, police judge, city attorney and fifteen councilmen. There were five tickets in the field, the regular democratic, the Johnson democratic, the republican, the non-partisan and the labor. The A. P. A. question figured to some extent as an issue in the campaign and the contest has been very bitter, especially between the two democratic factions.

The exciting events of the day culminated at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in a riot in the Fifth ward. One man was instantly killed, three received mortal injuries and two were seriously wounded. This is the list of fatalities:

Mike Callahan, shot through the right side and instantly killed.
Perry Fowler, shot through the back, will die.
Con Bronsnohan, shot in kidneys, will probably die.
Patrick Fleming, shot in left shoulder, will recover.
John McGovern, shot through right arm.
Jerry Pate, deputy constable, shot in the face, will die.

Monday night, Justice Latshaw, a warm supporter of Frank Johnson for mayor, at the request of Jim Pryor, a Fifth ward politician, commissioned about fifty of Pryor's followers as deputy constables. In the morning the Pryor gang were on hand early, fighting for Johnson. Six of the gang assaulted a negro named Andy Rowlett and a gang assaulted Mr. Wagoner. Late in the forenoon a gang of them beat up a party of young men from Westport. A warrant was issued by Justice Willis for the arrest of several of the gang and Constable Jerry Pate was sent to arrest them.

Tuesday afternoon the Davis and Cooper men came back armed and when Pate arrived there were 200 or more men, nearly all of them heavily armed and ready for trouble.

Just how the fight began no one seems able to tell, but Mike Callahan, one of the Pryor crowd, is said to have fired the first shot. Instantly two dozen guns were drawn and the shooting became general. The firing lasted but a short time and over 100 shots were fired. The police arrested nine men, all deputy constables.

CHICAGO, April 4.—Blood was spilled in the First ward of this city yesterday. Voting and drinking began early. Shooting, fighting and wholesale arrests followed in quick succession. The riotous scenes in the worst part of the ward, known as the "Levee" district, have not been equalled on an election day for many years. The trouble was expected on account of the aldermanic factional fight between "Bath house" John Coughlin, a candidate for re-election, and "Bill" Skakel, an independent democratic candidate. The republicans, who voted for J. Irving Pearce, proprietor of the Sherman house, were not molested. Two men were shot, one of them twice, but neither will die. Scores of workers hired by both factions were involved in the street and polling-place fights and the Harrison street police station was filled when the polls closed.

The first shooting fight began before noon outside of the polling place at 470 Clark street. Peter DePonte, a Frenchman, came to the polls wearing a Coughlin badge. A gang of Skakel hoodlums tried to take it from him and he resisted. Then he was assaulted, knocked down in the street, beaten and kicked in a brutal manner. When he was allowed to get up the Skakel gang prepared for a general fight, several drawing their pistols. Lewis Luther, a colored man, shot John Dee, a bartender and one of the chief lieutenants for Coughlin, in the thigh. He fired another shot which lodged in Dee's shoulder. The shooting brought the police to the scene and shooting and fighting came to an end.

The second shooting occurred near by, in front of the polling place at Taylor street and Plymouth place. William Marshall, a Coughlin heeler, fired the first shot. He aimed his revolver at Sam Phillips, a colored worker for Skakel, but the bullet missed, going through the window of a house and almost killing a woman who sat at the window watching the row. Before Phillips could draw his gun Marshall fired again. The bullet went wide of its mark. Then Phillips drew his weapon and fired at Marshall, hitting him in the fleshy part of the leg. Marshall quickly returned the fire, hitting Phillips in the thigh, but not seriously wounding him. After the bullets had been extracted both shooters were taken to the police station and locked up, charged with shooting with intent to kill.

Repeating on a large scale and in the most brazen manner was charged against the democrats. The returns from almost every precinct show that Coughlin's forces remained in possession from the opening to the closing of the polls.

The new council will stand 42 republicans to 26 democrats, the newly-elected aldermen being 22 republicans and 12 democrats.

A Terrible Disaster.

FT. WAYNE, Ind., April 4.—Late Monday night at Kentville, Ind., the home of John L. Price, a Nickel Plate section foreman, was discovered on fire. An oil lamp exploded in the kitchen, and in half an hour the frame residence was in ashes.

Mr. Price was awakened from his slumbers and hastened to rescue his wife and four children. He carried his wife and infant child from the burning house and they were terribly blistered and may not recover. Three children, aged 4, 6 and 8 years, were suffocated by heat before the father could rescue them.

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Gov. McKinley today issued his proclamation fixing April 27 as Arbor day. The proclamation is as follows:
